Comic Relief ('Red Nose Day') Non-Uniform Day – 20 March

As you know, tomorrow (Friday 20 March) marks this year's 'Comic Relief' ('Red Nose Day'). Schools up and down the country will be participating, and we are no exception! To this end, Friday 20 March has been designated a non-uniform day, with pupils and grown-ups encouraged to dress in red, as a superhero or favourite book character or with any other theme linked with Comic Relief itself. If you would like to donate to this worthy cause, please click on the following link:

Introducing Lydgate Infant School's New Instagram Account

We are excited to share that we now have an official Instagram account. The account will give followers a closer look at everyday school life, from classroom activities to whole-school events, as well as updates on projects and celebrations of learning across the year. By following @lydgateinfant, you'll be able to see regular snapshots of what we are exploring, creating and enjoying in school. We hope that it will be a simple way to stay connected and feel part of the wider school community.

We look forward to welcoming you to our new online space and sharing more of the wonderful learning happening at Lydgate.

Class Photographs

A reminder that following the recent visit of our school photographer, your child should have brought home a class photograph proof in his or her bookbag should you wish to purchase prints (please note a deadline for free delivery of online orders via school of next Wednesday 25 March).
