Black History Month – October 2025

Parents and carers may be aware of the annual celebration of Black History which takes place throughout October nationally. Schools throughout the country will be participating in this important event valuing diversity, and we are no exception! As a result, we will be engaging appropriately throughout the month with this important focus as part of our Learning for Life (L4L) curriculum with pupils.

National Poetry Day – Thursday 2 October

Poetry has been a focus within school this week (and particularly today!). Please could we ask parents and carers to take the opportunity to share a poem with their child if they have not already done so as part of this great event. A reminder that you can find out more by visiting: www.nationalpoetryday.co.uk.

‘Lucky Plate’ Day

Many thanks to parents and carers in encouraging their child to opt for a school meal today, as part of our ‘Lucky Plate’ competition! It was great fun, and we intend to continue to make the competition a regular event each term. Such initiatives are designed to improve pupil take-up of Universal Infant Free School Meals, and so to take advantage of the excellent meal provision offered by the school.

School Photograph Order Deadline

As you know, pupils had individual photographs taken here in school earlier in the week, and brought home proofs for you to see in their bookbags. Please note that if you would like to order a photograph for delivery via the school rather than directly by post from the photography company, the online order deadline is Tuesday 14 October.

Rosh Hashanah

The school would like to wish a Happy New Year to all those who have been celebrating Rosh Hashanah!

LISA Message – Come & Join Us!

Come and join LISA - come and join a group of parents and carers who support school through fundraising opportunities. To find out more a reminder that our first meeting is this coming Monday (6 October) at Crosspool Social at 8pm. We'd love to see you!
