

Communication and Literacy

- Phase 3 Letters and sounds.
- Directed sentence writing.
- Features of non-fiction books.
- Conversations about people who help us.
- Developing listening skills.

Expressive Arts and Design

- Mother's day cards.
- Making splint pin vehicles or people.
- Observational drawing/painting of spring flowers.

Learning for life

- SEAL – Good to be me.
- Healthy Minds

Physical Development

- Sports relief challenges.
- Fine motor development through art and design.

Mathematics

- Comparison of objects and numbers.
- One more & one less.
- Number bonds to 10.
- Comparison-measure.

Reception Spring 2 – Our City People Who Help Us

Learning Stimuli

- What are you good at?
- Can you think of five people who have helped you this week?
- Go into the garden- What signs of spring can you see? Can you draw and label them?
- Can you keep a diary?
- Can you make the numberblocks characters?
- Find some single digit numbers in your house. Pick two and add them together.

Understanding the World

- Making observations of seasonal changes within the immediate environment and discussing them.
- Learning about the roles of people in our community who help us.
- Understanding the needs of other communities who we raise money for.

Outdoor Learning

- Using large construction to make emergency vehicles.
- Role play of people who help us.

Special Events

- World book day
- Sports relief
- Emergency services museum trip
- Mothering Sunday
- Visits from Professional occupations.